Subject: 1700 Meeting Update

Hi Rob,

Here is the update after the 1700 meeting

RPS

Today went like expected
Maybe a couple of hundred people.
Tractor units starting to block right lanes (North and South)
Tractor units being abandoned – operators going to hotels
Maybe 100 people around the Legislature
Well behaved, no issues
Starting strategic enforcement
Parking tickets/traffic tickets
They may try to tow vehicles
May need extra resources to assist.
May wait until tomorrow evening to tow
May call out Public Order Unit to assist with towing tomorrow evening

GR

Not a lot on impact other than perimeter of Albert
A few media requests
Peaceful thanks to assistance of RPS
RPS members were extremely helpful

PCC CSO

Similar update to RPS
Traffic ok on Hill Ave
A few protestors tried to get through
Staffed overnight with CSO

MOE

People respectful with CO's
Have not run in to any problems
2 COs on duty tomorrow 0900-2100

Sask Builds

Getting concerns from employees regarding return-to-work Monday (Protestors and barricades)

Legislature Security

Sean will stay with Commissionaire inside on day shifts
Interop with cell phones, no significant challenges

Discussion on Long Term Planning

If protest extends, RPS would like to have CO's SHP, PCC CSO's and SCAN take over static points.
(May have to deploy SCAN just as security with no new appointment)
Group will reassess tomorrow

Next meeting

Sunday 20220205 1100
